Do Good Campus Fund

Supports efforts across the University of Maryland to:

Reimagine learning in service of humanity inside and outside the classroom.

The Provost and the Do Good Institute, in conjunction with the Provost's Do Good Strategic Leadership Council, will:

Award up to $320,000 this academic year to full-time staff, faculty, and student groups who are delivering social impact through academic, co-curricular, and extracurricular programs and projects.

DO GOOD INSTITUTE

Selection Criteria

Campus Fund grantees will use their award to scale their impact according to the Do Good Learning Principles and the core values of the Do Good Campus Fund:

- Experiential learning
- Diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging
- Social impact
- Service to humanity
- Collaboration
- Innovation
